

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.
Friday, August 8th, 1873.

We print to-day the returns as far as they have been received, but they are of necessity very meagre. From all indications we are of the opinion that there was but a light vote polled.

THE Raleigh News has so kind a regard for the Evening Post that it can't call him a Republican. It will be supplied for President of the Five Subscribers at $4.00 per annum; or six copies for one dollar. It is a paper which does not go down even with the colored people themselves? We suppose he is to be called a Conservative. Heaven save the mark!

WE are at a loss to see any necessity of any tricks in political affairs. We believe it is the duty of a man desiring advancement in that line, to conduct himself as uprightly as the strictest business man. After a man is legally nominated by a party, every man claiming fealty to the party, and desiring to continue it or to hold office by the suffrage of it, should abide by the nomination. If he claims to be a Republican he must vote for Republican nominees or else lose caste in the party. No man has a right to demand pledges of a candidate after he has been regularly nominated, or to threaten to use his influence against him if he don't subscribe to some private pledge looking not to the influence of the party expressly, but to the benefit of an individual. Such attempts are unworthy of honorable voters and should be frowned down. Within the folds of a party, all men have a right to be heard, but they cannot expect to retain the confidence of the members of a party, if its nominees are to be stricken off the ticket as a petty revenge or to gain private benefits. We hope to see no more of such action. Some of the men engaged in it, did so, we are confident, thoughtlessly, and upon reflection will be sorry for it. To see a candidate upon a ticket adopt such action is especially to be condemned and should be denounced. Let us act together and show a united front to the foe or we will assuredly be overwhelmed.

Dancing Analyzed.

A correspondent, writing from Richmond Springs to the Louisville Courier-Journal, says: You can't think how different the style of dancing is at the North from what it is in Louisville and other Western or Southern cities. Here and at Saratoga New Yorkers rule, as they are in the majority, and their manners and customs are generally adopted. The dancing is very slow, indeed, and the redowa, or sliding step, sometimes called the Boston, but very different from the 'dip,' which has been out of fashion two years at the North, is used altogether no matter what is played. Galops, waltzes, mazurkas are all danced to the same measure; polkas and schottisches are rarely, if ever heard, but the step never varies when they are played. Galops and waltzes have the monopoly. The style of holding the lady is very different here and at Saratoga from that in Louisville. Here the gentleman's left hand is laid firmly upon the lady's back just at the waist, while his right thumb and forefinger hold the inner side of her wrist (feel her pulse) in a dainty fashion. Sometimes he holds the tips of her fingers; but last evening I saw the latest variety, when a washed-out blonde youth, who has made his debut in society, held with his fingers the outer edge of his partner's hand, while his hand struck upon the back of her hand. These trifling matters are important, as indicating the places of residence of the dancers. In a crowded ball-room you can pick out those who come from New York, the extreme South, or the West by observing their style of dancing. If a couple dance somewhat rapidly, and the lady places a hand on each side the gentleman's collar bone, you say she is from the West or South; while if she is having her pulse counted, while her hand project in a most unnatural pose, and her partner and herself move with easy indifference around the room, you know the couple are from New York or one of New York's dependencies in the matter of fashion.

As Brown Marsh, in Bladen county, on last Saturday evening, Alex. Robinson, colored, was assaulted by Solomon Lonon, also colored, and shot and probably murdered. No provocation was given, the act having been said to be the result of an old grudge borne by Lenon towards the injured man. Lenon is still at large. So says the Raleigh News.

The Durham Tobacco Plant states that a rainbow was visible in that town an hour after sunset. 'Tis well that the editor vouches for the truth of the statement.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

It is given out afresh at the State Department that no appointments to Germany of a diplomatic or consular nature will be made of persons born in that country, and that it is useless to make application for such offices. This policy has been adopted at the express request of Bismarck, who wishes to check the enormous emigration to this country of the youth of the "Faderland," and the spread of republican institutions.

The telegraph yesterday gave us a brief notice of the race at Buffalo. The following are the particulars: Fully twenty-five thousand people were in attendance at Buffalo Park. The weather was cool and pleasant, and the track in good condition. The first race, for a purse of $20,000; $10,000 to the first horse, $5,000 to the second, $3,000 to the third, and $2,000 to the fourth, for horses who have never beaten 2:21, was won by Sensation. Five heats were trotted, Camars winning the first two. Time, 2:20, 2:21, 2:21, 2:24, 2:28. Judge Fullerton took the second money. Damars the third, and Gamster the fourth. The second race for 2:45 horses, was won by Clementine. Time, 2:29, 2:30, 2:32.

The Labor Reform Convention at Lowell, Mass., adopted a series of resolutions deprecating the long labor per day of the operators, and asking for a pledge of factory operatives to vote only for ten-hour men for Representatives and Senators, denouncing the non-attention for the past twenty-five years to the petitions to them on the subject of labor reform; that they regard the recent changes made by Governor Washburne in the Bureau of Labor after his proposition to lift this department to a higher level as a swindle upon the labor organization of the most atrocious and offensive character, and his renomination by the Republican party, and indifference of Democratic organizations to the crime against labor, they regard as an additional evidence that they have nothing whatever to hope from either of these two parties; that they have been captured by capitalist classes, as the Whig and Democratic organizations were controlled by Southern slave-owners.

Captain Welles, commanding the Shenandoah, telegraphs from Cadiz, under the date of the 5th instant, as follows: "Cadiz is in the possession of the Government forces. The insurgents surrendered without fighting. The city is tranquil."

In connecting with this dispatch the active head of the Navy Department pronounces absurd the telegram forwarded by a Herald correspondent from London the 4th instant, to the effect that Capt. Welles had forbidden the Spanish frigate Ville de Madrid from firing on the beleaguered city. He states that Captain Welles had no authority to take any such action as that indicated in the dispatch alluded to, and could not have done as intimated unless he had clearly taken leave of his senses. The improbability of the story is still further strengthened by the fact that while the Herald dispatch is under the date of the 4th instant that of Captain Welles is dated August 5, in which he makes no mention of having had any communication, either private or official, with the commander of the Ville de Madrid. Commander Reynolds pronounces the whole dispatch, therefore, a canard.

MASONBORO' TOWNSHIP.

The following are the returns received

this morning:

court cases they have had in late years with our American citizens of African descent, and having been mulcted in every case, they lose no occasion to eke out their venom upon the innocent and the guilty alike.

At 12:40 I was at the depot of the Pennsylvania line, corner of Sixth and B streets, which is within a half square of many of the principal hotels of the capital. The car we took was a brand new one, elegantly furnished with all the modern conveniences of the age—polite and courteous officials, who seem to evince a pleasure in imparting information to their passengers and the traveling public.

In Philadelphia we put up at the "Continental," and found all that we could expect for the money demanded. At Cape May we attended a re-union of our old society, and had a pleasant time at the "Stockton," where we met many old acquaintances and distinguished persons. We had plenty of fish, crabs, oysters, and all the good things of the season, and a nice time in general.

From Cape May we went to New York, and spent three days in the metropolis, stopping at the old "Astor," thence to Philadelphia; from Philadelphia to Washington on the 12:50 a. m. train. At Biggier, near Baltimore, the junction of the new Union Railroad with the Philadelphia and Baltimore Road, our train was delivered to the Baltimore and Potomac Road, the new line from Baltimore to Washington. At this point we were forty-nine minutes behind time. Notwithstanding this, we arrived in Washington in time to take the boat South, while all the passengers by the Baltimore and Ohio line were left in Washington.

I would here advise all the traveling public to be sure and buy tickets by the new Pennsylvania Air Line, which will insure them connection with boat at Washington, both going North and coming South, besides putting them in New York one hour ahead of all other lines. This new all-rail line passes through the great tunnel under the city of Baltimore, thereby avoiding the tedious transfer by horse power, and saves one hour in time over the old route.—An entire new equipment of cars, of the most elegant finish, have been placed on this line. New magnificent Pullman parlor cars—also, drawing room cars—are run on the daily trains, and new magnificent Pullman sleeping cars on the night trains. I take an unusual amount of pleasure in giving this information in regard to this route, believing that it is the duty of regular correspondents at all times to impart such to the reading public.

Well, here I am, at my post, but I have no news of much interest. The hint I threw at this city in my letters to the Post last winter, calling upon the citizens to erect a public hall in our city, has been taken by Buchanan & McDonald, and Dr. W. C. Benbow, who have both arranged for having completed at an early day two public halls. So much for the enterprise of our citizens. A new market house will soon follow, then a public driving park, where our citizens can "pull out" their turnouts.

A special to the Herald, dated London, 7th, says, a cabinet council was held this afternoon. The discussion resulted in important changes in the present ministry. The Marquis of Ripon and Childro and Baxter have resigned, the first for private reasons. Mr. Gladstone in addition to the premiership assumes the Chancellery of the Exchequer in lieu of Law, who assumes the Home office. Mr. Burne is to be made a Peer and will succeed Lord Ripon as President of the Council. Mr. Barham Carter succeeds Baxter as Joint Secretary of the Treasury. Arthur Peel becomes a liberal whig, and other changes are expected in a few days. John Bright joins the cabinet as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. The liberals lost the election to-day in the East of Staffordshire.

The Cubans of this city are preparing for another expedition to land arms and ammunition on Cuban soil with the Virginis. It is said this will be the largest attempted.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal, and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Transcript.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the families by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the freudless enjoyment it affords.—N Y Evening Post.

THE POST

Advertising Medium

It claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the Post is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:
C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being so ready mixed, that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,
S. MCGILL, M. D.
To THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 38 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention the being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.
Front Street Theatre.
CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material, and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly,
JACOB STOFFER & SON.
FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.
Mr. C. P. Knight:—A friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully,
JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respectfully,
C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent,
No. 38 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic merit, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
